

Your business travel partner

Your people travel to expand your business

It is important to do it right!

In today's business environment, success depends on adopting the highest operating standards... Wasted budgets, lost time, missed opportunities and stranded travellers can all have an adverse effect on your operation. We at A.von offer you a total Business Travel Management Service that will not only reduce your travel expenditure, but will guarantee that you enjoy our high standard of personal service.

We know how to do it right!

Seamless Service

Our team combine to offer you years of experience in the travel industry and will assist you with your trip, be it for business or leisure. The Account Manager, your primary point of contact, will assist you with all air, hotel, car and transfer reservations. We can also arrange Concierge Services, book holiday extras such as a City tour, assist you with your passport and visa requirements as well as keep you informed on your destination. We are a one stop travel shop and offer a complete travel service.

We negotiate for you

We have a strong association with Air Malta and all the major airlines operating to Malta. The benefits of these relationships are passed onto our customers. In addition you will enjoy the privileges that come with our long standing relationships with all hotel room and car rental consolidators and other travel suppliers. We offer competitive prices without compromising the traveller.

Powerful partnership. American Express® – Global Business Travel

Our clients enjoy the benefits of small business professionalism together with the advantages of having the buying power of being part of the American Express Travel Network and also affiliated to a number of supplier programs. American Express Worldwide Customer Care® offers our clients assistance at over 2000 offices in over 130 countries, so you are never alone on your travels.
